The following are the guidelines for writing essays in descriptive communication.

1. Topic Selection: Choose a topic that is both interesting and relevant to your audience. Make sure the topic is specific enough to maintain focus but broad enough to provide depth.

2. Research: Gather information about your topic. This could be from books, articles, interviews, or other credible sources.

3. Outlining: Create an outline that includes the main points you want to discuss. This helps organize your thoughts and ensures a logical flow of ideas.

4. Drafting: Write your first draft. Don't worry about perfection; this is where you capture the essence of your topic.

5. Revision: Review your draft and make necessary revisions. Focus on improving clarity, coherence, and the overall impact of your writing.

6. Finalizing: Edit and proofread your final draft to ensure it is free of errors and reads smoothly.

By following these steps, you can achieve effective communication in your essays.
